

Salifou by Róisín Clark - Age 10

*You took Salifou our lovely friend, my rock,
Such a wonderful musician,
Such a wonderful friend.
Life feels empty at this moment in time.*

*Why did you do it?
Life is not kind.
Such a great person.
If only you knew,
The joy he brought us.*

*A father of two.
God bless you, Salifou,
Wherever you are.*

*For I know your drumming,
Will be heard near and far,
You were always smiling,
It was joyful to see.*

*I just wish you could be here, near to me.
So thank you, Salifou,
For all that you gave,
For I've got the memories,
Which I promise to save.*

*So, please, dear God,
Take care of our friend.
For you have him now,
And we have to mend.*
